

Program Goals

Radiography Goals and Student Learning Outcomes

I. The program will graduate clinically competent imaging professionals to meet community healthcare needs

SLO

- a. Student will demonstrate clinical proficiency
- b. Students will practice ALARA principles

II. Students/graduates will be effective communicators

SLO

- a. Students will demonstrate communication fluency by engaging in diverse perspectives
- b. Students will demonstrate effective written skills

III. Students/graduate will model professionalism

SLO

- a. Students will demonstrate professional growth and development through reflective writing
- b. Students will demonstrate professional behavior

IV. Students/graduates are effective at critical thinking.

SLO

- a. Students will demonstrate analytical inquiry through practical approaches to problem solving
- b. Students will demonstrate critical thinking skills in the use of information resources